

Lead Contact

Lisa Vann is the lead contact for the NQT programme.
Email: lisa.vann@transformtrust.co.uk

Format

- Each half term there will be an extended afternoon session.
- The NQT conference will be a whole day in January.
- A core delivery team led by Lisa Vann and Rachel Meli will be present at all sessions. These professionals are senior practitioners including Specialist Leaders of Education (SLEs) or Outstanding Facilitators (OFPs).
- NQTs will build a portfolio of learning throughout the year and each session will have dedicated time for reflection built in.
- Each session will start with small group discussions to allow the NQTs to build a support network of peers.
- Each session will include a 'surgery' section with one of the delivery team to allow NQTs to meet individual development needs.
- Each session will be accompanied by resources on the Transform Learning Platform.

Transform NQT Programme 2017-2018

Date	Session Title	Session Detail	NQT Team	Venue
Monday 25th September 1pm – 5pm	NQT Induction Workshop	This session will introduce delegates to the programme and the Teaching School; they will have the opportunity to meet each other and begin to build a network of peers at the same stage in their career. Delegates will focus on how to promote outstanding attitudes to learning in the classroom, looking at strategies for raising self-esteem and meeting individual needs as well as effective organisation of the learning environment. Delegates will be put into learning 3s (triads). Over the year they will work together to observe each other's practice and develop coaching practice.	Lisa Vann Rachel Meli OTP Facilitator and SLE	Transform Training Suite Unit 11, Castlebridge Office Village
Monday 13th November 1pm – 5pm	Supporting pupils with additional needs and EAL Working with parents and carers	The session will also look at providing high quality provision for pupils with additional needs and pupils with EAL. During the session, the facilitator will share practical resources and ideas for creating an inclusive classroom environment as well as support and guidance with planning intervention and leading other adults. This will be followed by a workshop sharing good practice around positive communication strategies with parents and carers. During the workshop, delegates will participate in an action learning set-style session to problem solve any challenges that they may be encountering with parents and carers together.	Lisa Vann Rachel Meli OTP Facilitator and SLE	Transform Training Suite Unit 11, Castlebridge Office Village
Monday 15th January 9am – 4pm	NQT conference: Quality Teachers	The conference will cover many of the basic principles of Transform Teaching Programmes to look at what makes good and outstanding teaching. Guest speakers from the University of Nottingham will run lively and informative workshops covering teacher wellbeing and promoting dialogue in the classroom. The afternoon will involve delegates splitting in Key Stage groups (including the EYFS) and moving to local schools to look at specific resources and pedagogies for the particular age that they teach. A separate conference flyer will be sent to delegates, mentors and Head Teachers	Lisa Vann Rachel Meli OTP Facilitator and SLE	Transform Training Suite Unit 11, Castlebridge Office Village
Monday 12th March 1pm-5pm	Triad feedback Effective marking and feedback	This session will be for delegates to present on their peer-to-peer observations. Working in their triads, delegates will report their key findings to the rest of the group. Discussion will focus on what makes good teaching. Facilitators will draw upon research and good practice case studies to engage delegates in discussions on what quality feedback looks like. Delegates will be given practical ideas and resources for making their feedback meaningful, manageable and motivational.	Lisa Vann Rachel Meli OTP Facilitator and SLE	Transform Training Suite Unit 11, Castlebridge Office Village
Monday 23rd April 1pm-5pm	Using data to improve outcomes for pupils	Delegates will be asked to bring their most recent data to the session in order to develop effective strategies for analysis and planning ways forward based on attainment and progress. Facilitators will follow this up with a workshop focussed on differentiation and questioning as quality first teaching strategies to drive progress in the classroom.	Lisa Vann Rachel Meli OTP Facilitator and SLE	Transform Training Suite Unit 11, Castlebridge Office Village
Monday 11th June 1pm – 5pm	TeachMeet: Review of the year	In this session, delegates will be invited to share their experiences in a TeachMeet style mini-presentation of up to 3 minutes. Their presentations should focus on their progress over the year. There will also be a session on career development led by Fiona Moore. This will enable delegates to plan for being part of the whole-school appraisal process as well as explore the different career options that are open to them in the changing educational landscape.	Lisa Vann Rachel Meli OTP Facilitator and SLE	Transform Training Suite Unit 11, Castlebridge Office Village

EYFS delegates enrolled on the programme will be offered alternative workshops bespoke to EYFS on the learning environment and marking and feedback. These will take place at the same time as the main session.
