

Thursday 28th March 2019
At Ravensdale Junior School
4.30pm - 6.30pm

An invitation to join us

A special interactive session introducing Transform School Direct Initial Teacher Training, where your teaching career begins.

Meet with the team, current school direct trainees and some of our graduates, who can share with you their journey.

Find out why the Transform School Direct programme is so special and see some of the outstanding support, development and enrichment opportunities that await when you confirm your place with us.

This session is for:

New graduates, final year undergraduates, Teaching Assistants with a degree or those returning to work after a career break and considering teaching.

The session has been organised in 20-minute Q&A segments addressing key elements to support your application. Come for all of the sessions or just the one that interests you:

4.40pm - 5.00pm

Introduction and overview of the Transform School Direct Programme –

“A World of Opportunity Awaits.” Explore the exciting and unique aspect of the programme and the enrichment opportunities that make this such a special programme.

5.10pm - 5.30pm

Untangling the UCAS application and interview process, we can help you navigate the UCAS website and show how easy applying for the School Direct Programme can be. Our team will be on hand to offer advice and guidance to support your application and interview technique.

5.40pm - 6.00pm

The nitty gritty session – meet one of our current School Direct trainees who will give an insight into the programme, the extensive support and development that forms part of the Transform School Direct offer and their hopes and ambitions when they complete their School Direct year.

6.10pm -6.30pm

The Transform Professional Journey – meet one of our first School Direct Trainees, currently in their 4th year as a Teacher with a Transform school.

This is a fantastic opportunity to prepare your application, arrange school-based experience to support your application and discuss with our team your ambitions for the future. We want to help you find the right programme for you and to help you decide if school-based teacher training is the best option

If you have some general questions regarding UCAS, funding, or the wider opportunities available through Transform, our team will be on hand throughout the evening.
