

Anna Stapleton, Inclusion Leader and SENCO, Glade Hill Primary

- Raising standards for all children through inclusive practice and intervention
- Mentoring or coaching support for other leaders
- Strategies for the inclusion of and provision for children with SEND

'I am passionate about Inclusion for all children and look forward to sharing my knowledge and expertise in this area with others. Using my experience and sensitive interpersonal skills I will ensure a supportive but challenging approach to mentoring or coaching. I strive to inspire others to take pride in their ability to support or lead in this crucial area and look forward to work alongside others to improve progress of all children.'

Anna has over 9 years of experience working in both Nottingham City and other areas. She has worked across all phases of a Primary School, demonstrating excellent teaching and leadership skills throughout. Anna is the Inclusion Leader, SENCO and Key Stage 1 Leader at Glade Hill Primary and Nursery School. She has a core role on the senior leadership team, promoting inclusive practice and ensuring standards are raised for all. Her school has recently had inclusion and provision for children with SEND confirmed as an area of excellent practice during a quality assurance report by Challenge Partners.

With her extensive knowledge, understanding and experience of inclusion and SEND, Anna is able to work strategically as part of the wider school team, advising and supporting as required. A key strength is supporting other leaders in driving school improvement through an inclusive approach to education, ensuring the holistic development of all children.

Anna is very skilled in monitoring and evaluating provision for SEND, leading to sustainable improvements in this key area. This includes developing quality first teaching, planning effective interventions and monitoring impact to ensure that the effectiveness of any approach is maximised.

She has the necessary expertise to offer both practical advice and support, Alongside her skills in the leadership and management of change. She is Able to provide bespoke mentoring or coaching support for leaders to Support for the development of inclusive practice and culture.

