I am deeply passionate about the delivery of high quality teaching & learning and the long-term impact this has on children. Alongside this, I am keen to develop potential and recognise the role support and guidance has in unleashing this. As with children, all teachers and leaders have capacity to improve. I believe that by adopting a positive, personable, supportive, bespoke and guided approach, teachers' and leaders' potential can be unleashed and with it, outcomes for children will undoubtedly improve.

Lisa is an experienced teacher who has worked in Nottingham City Schools for 13 years. During this time, she has taught across all stages (foundation, KS1 & KS2) with most recent experience being in KS2, predominantly year 6. She is currently Assistant Head Teacher, Teaching & Learning Lead and Pupil Premium Champion at Whitegate Primary School.

Lisa is a highly skilled teacher who has a proven record of improvement: in children, in teachers and in leaders. Lisa has led whole-school improvements through 'Read Write Inc' and 'Talk4Writing' successfully. She uses personal teaching skills effectively to develop and implement whole-school policies and practises, alongside coaching and mentoring staff in a variety of roles, creating a consistent approach to teaching and learning. Lisa is skilled at recognising potential in staff and is experienced at working alongside teachers and leaders in a supportive yet guided manner, accelerating their capacity.

Over the last four years, Lisa has planned and delivered multiple whole-school training sessions across English, behaviour, standards and teaching & learning, alongside producing bespoke initiatives.

Lisa is able to provide support in assessing and developing teaching & learning across the school. She can produce and deliver bespoke training to staff, on a personal or whole-school level, working alongside teachers and leaders to fast track improvements and build capacity.
